*... and every moment
is a window on all time*

—Thomas Wolfe

These are moments

ve eternit

Beginning . . .

*ending
now*

the striving of each

in desolate aloneness

joyful togetherness

or just some time

on silent mornings or noisy nights.

Searching the skyline

for a reason, a "why"

Why do leaves change color

Why do flowers bloom

Why all this hate

Moments . . . for touching and feeling

Remembering and forgetting

Then stopping by just to play

or to give to reach out

beyond closed doors

Into other hearts

or older minds

down new streets

with laughter

With despair

with hope

Moments for searching for answers

To the riddle of me

HAPPENINGS

DEDICATION

For giving willingly of your time and energy . . .

For your openness and sincerity with the student and your concern for the college as a whole . . .

For your contagious enthusiasm that promotes awareness of theatre as well as life . . .

For creating an interest in a different spectrum of education . . .

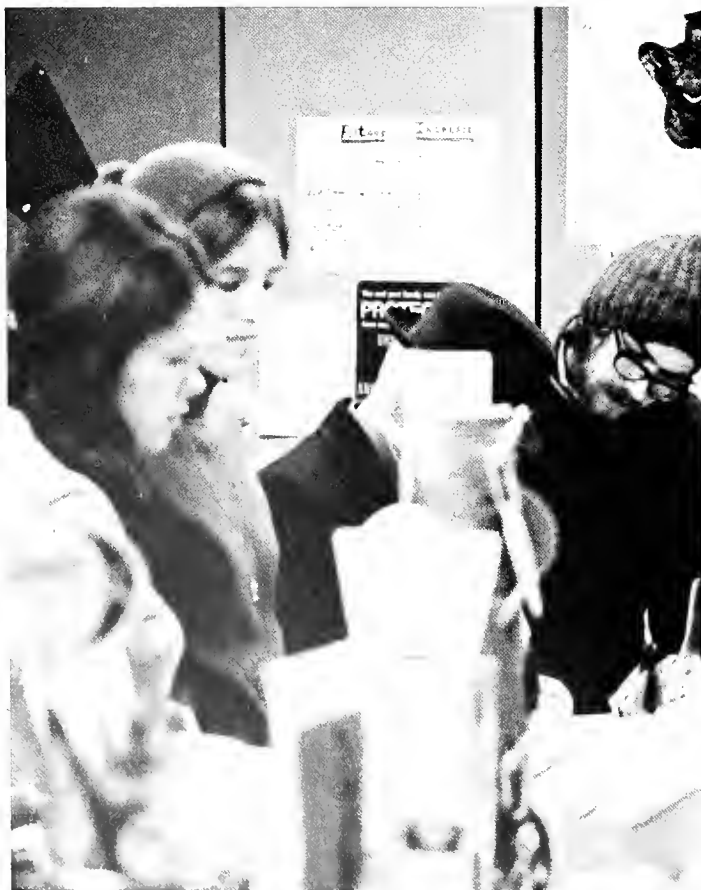

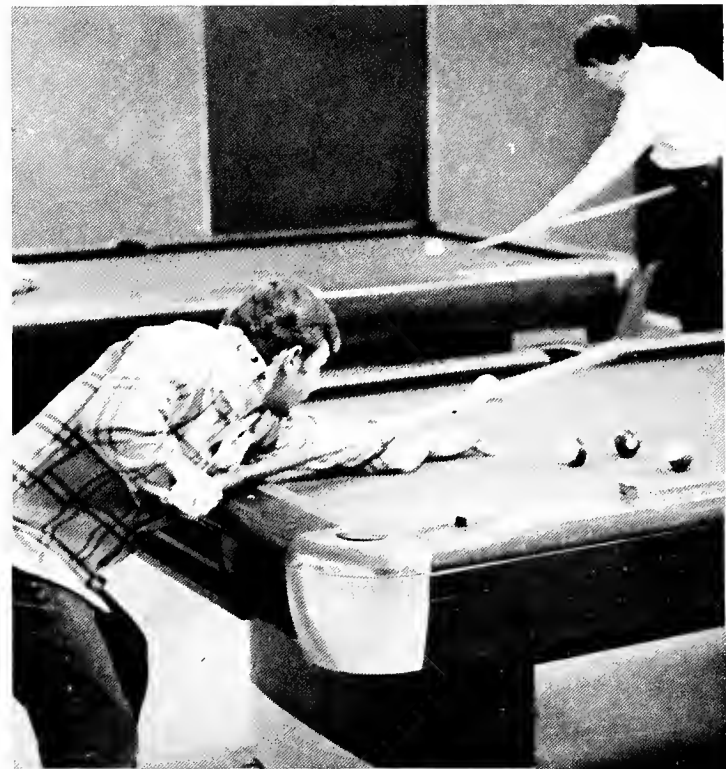

For recognizing the dignity of each individual and treating it with fairness and compassion . . .

For this and much more, we, the Senior Class of 1972, dedicate the HACAWA to

Mr. Sam Baker

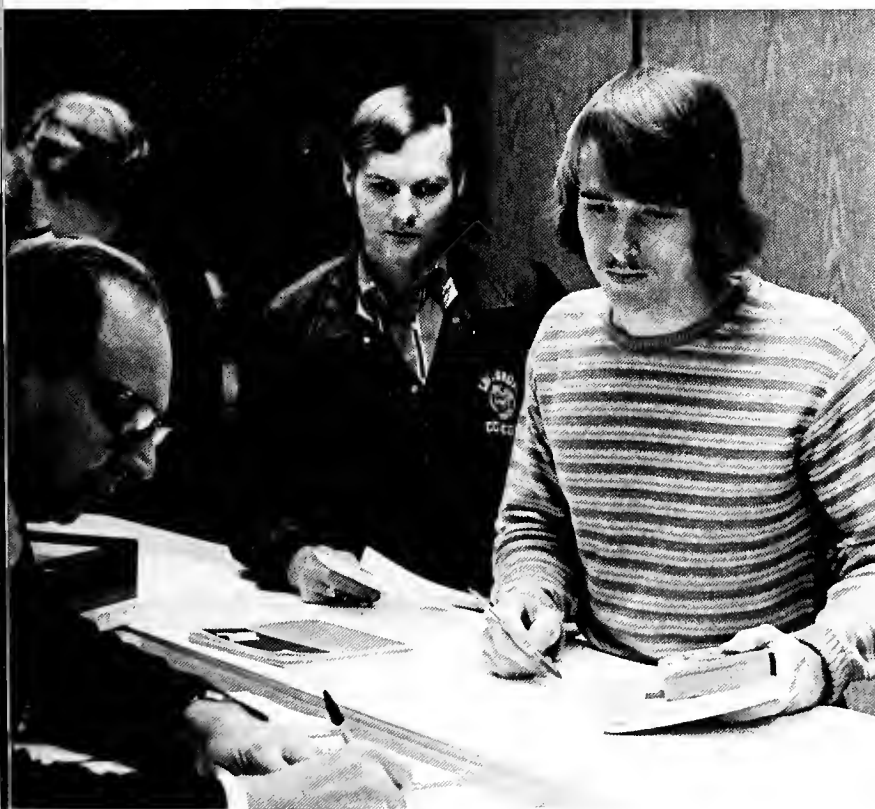

STUDENT LIFE

INTERIM

The 1972 Interim began with long registration lines, but progressed to be even more exciting than the previous Interim.

Interim Courses... Gymnastics... Caribbean
Cruise... Deaf School... European Travel...
Film Course...

Winter Weekend, held during January, proved to be very entertaining. Visitors such as Josh White, Jr., singer, Alice Steadman, astrologer; and John Kolish, hypnotist helped to make the weekend memorable.

Kristin Cress (Maggie the Cat)

Mark Hegele and Janica Bofto (Big Daddy and Big Mama), 1971 Winners of Major Playmakers awards: Mark Hegele, Freshman Drama Medal and Most Outstanding Performance of the Year for Big Daddy; Janica Bofto, E. J. Sox Playmaker Award for Best-All-Round Playmaker of the Year.

End of 1971 PLAYMAKERS season . . . Tennessee Williams' family drama of greed and mendacity . . . "CAT ON A HOT TIN ROOF" . . . Pulitzer prize . . . children from Hickory area play "no-neck monsters" . . . "Sister Woman, how come you name all yo' chillun dawgs' names?" . . . illusionary setting . . . "28,000 acres of the richest land this side of the Valley Nile" . . .

Tim Brendle and Pam Bennett (Gooper and Mae)

Opening 1971-72 Playmaker drama... Luigi Pirandello's "SIX CHARACTERS IN SEARCH OF AN AUTHOR"... fiftieth anniversary revival... terrifying class of illusion and reality... 1920's costumes... early 20th century style setting, drop and wing... the fountain, the scene in the garden... Madame Pace's shop, the seduction scene... blinding lights in the faces of the audience...

"YOU'RE A GOOD MAN, CHARLIE BROWN"... arena production, sold out, 9 performances... presented by special arrangements with Tams-Witmark... a book report on "Peter Rabbit"... one of first Off-Off-Off-Broadway productions of the popular Peanuts musical... "No one ever calls me sugarlips"... song and dance... "I will buy myself a queendom!"... four over-sized building blocks... "Dear Pen Pal"...

Pam Bennett (Lucy), Linda Larson (Patty) with Jon Huffman (Charlie Brown in bag)

The '71-'72 year begins . . .
 freshmen wait in line to meet the president . . . sit in Cline Gym as rats to meet the sophs . . .
 experience their very first registration . . . feel humble and lowly . . .

We use the center for many purposes . . . to "rack out" between classes . . . to gather with friends over a Coke . . . to discuss the latest over lunch . . . to check mail . . . to become a pool shark . . .

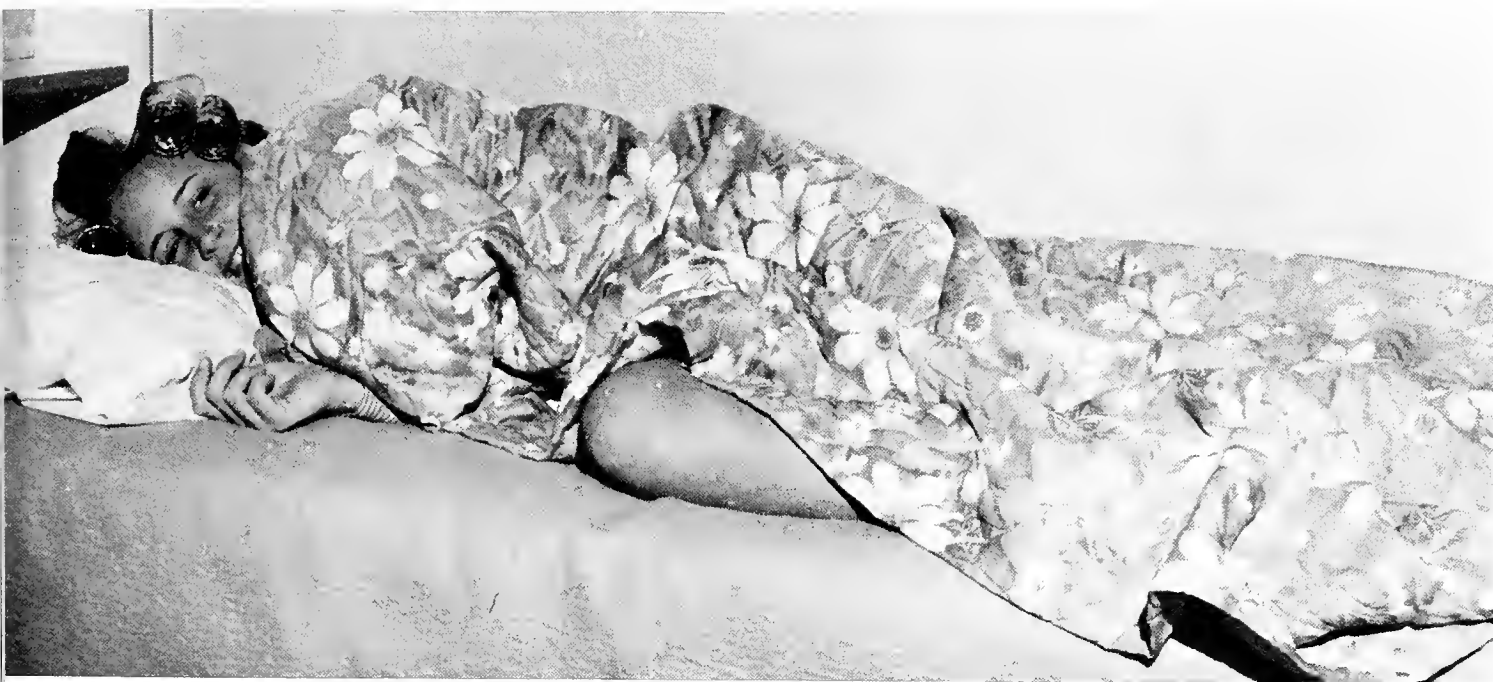

We find activities . . . operating a T.V. camera
. . . going to class . . . walking in the usual rain . . . displaying our group at the activities fair . . . urging our team on with a pep band rally

We try to find something to avoid studying . . .
playing cards . . . just goofing off . . .
being with "her" . . . taking a nap . . .

College does require some studying . . . whether it be the comics . . . space . . . science . . . that special research book . . . or that special person . . .

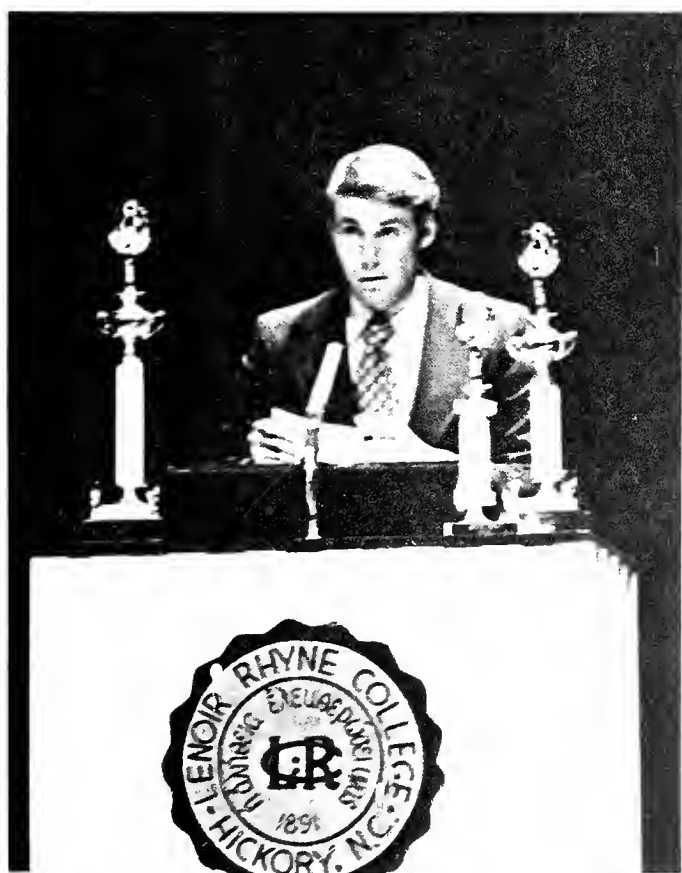

Students always enjoy being with other students . . . to scope out the girls . . . play with a dog . . . ride a bike . . . rest in the sun . . . or chat with a kitten.

FOOTBALL

5. Defensive Coach WALTER CORNWELL

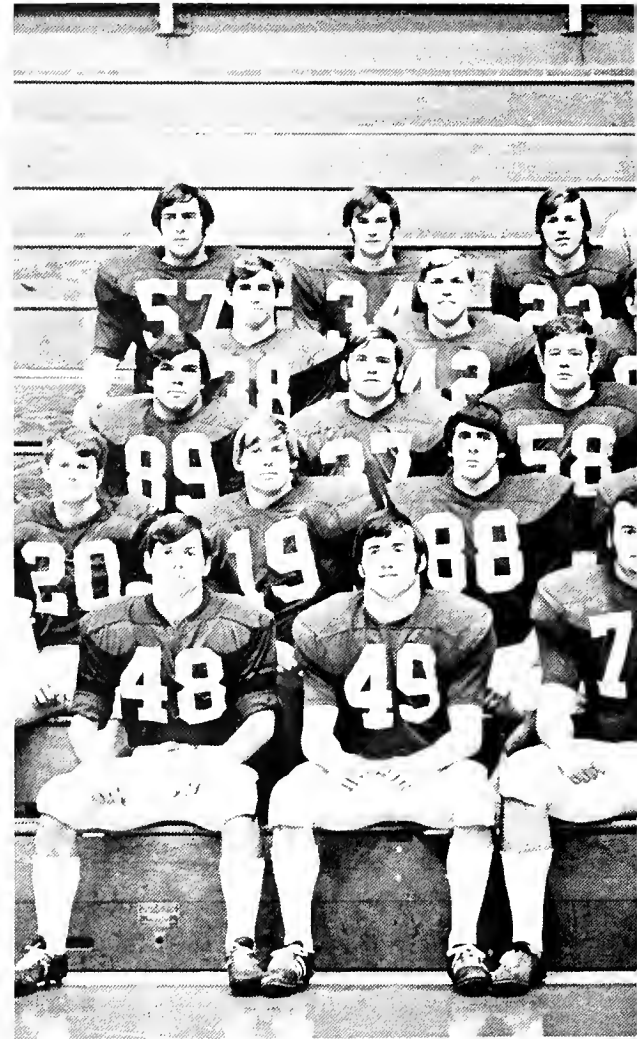

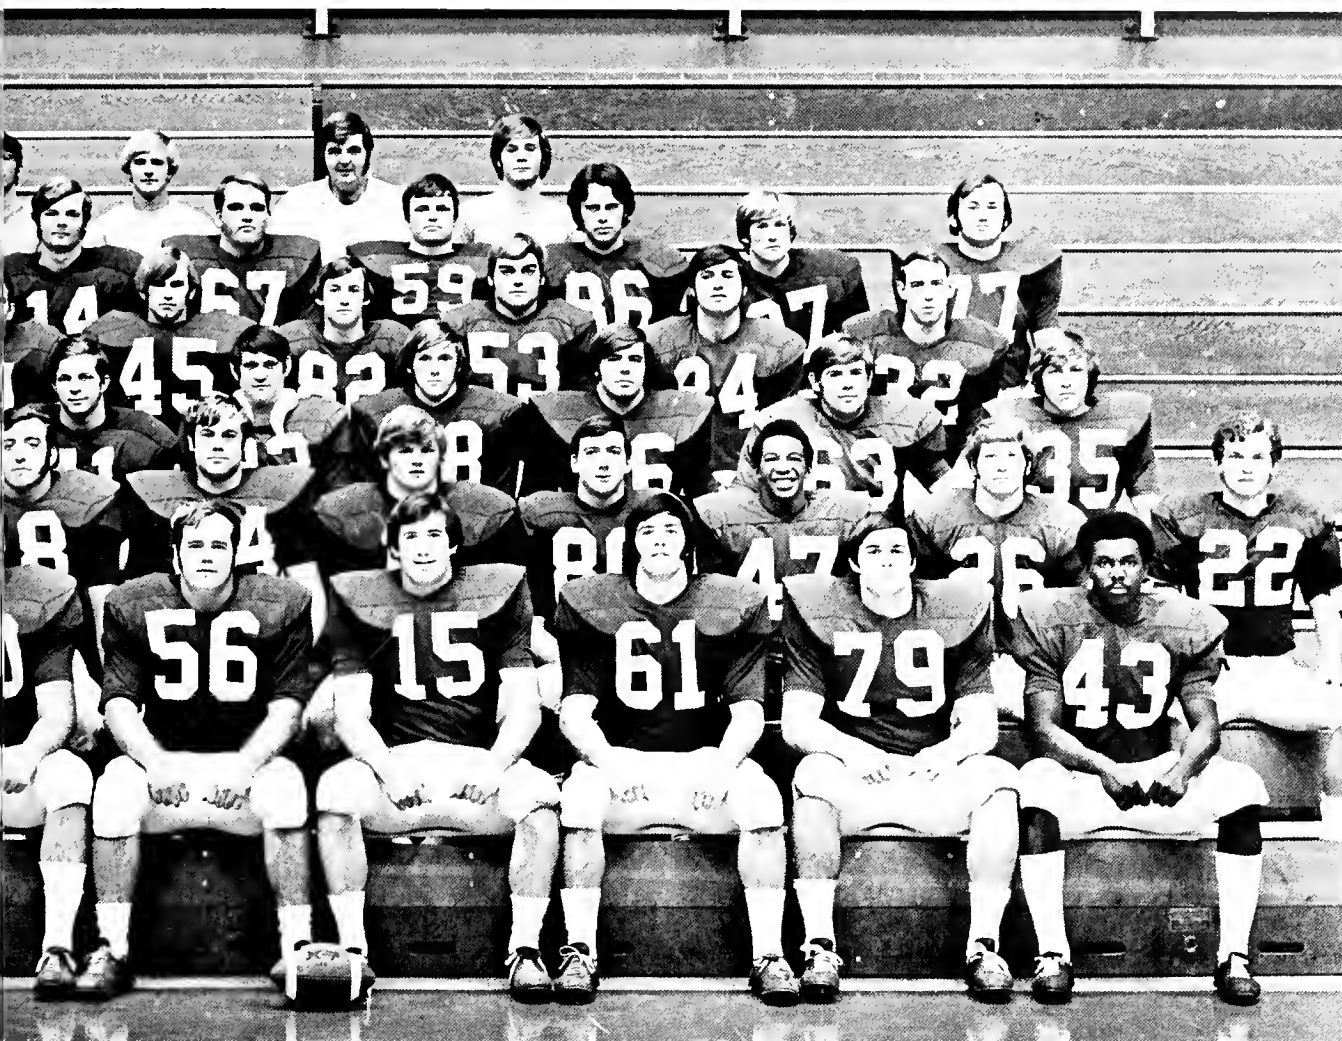

1971 was a bewildering season for the Bears, if the old saying "the best offense is a good defense" holds true. For the Bears featured a superb defense this season, yet suffered a 2/7/1 season. The defense was led by all conference Earl "Flea" Gibson and James Radick in constantly thwarting scoring threats. The secondary was very strong featuring Earl Gibson, John Moretz, Craig Koontz, and Ed Klink, Tough experience combined with new talent muscled into a seldom yielding defensive line. Perhaps the reason for this was the reshuffling of veterans and addition of new faces.

The offense showed potential as the front seven were primarily experienced. The backfield of the offense was new, however, and never really matured. This inexperience led to turnovers which left the major burden upon the defense.

Perhaps another reason for the disappointing season was the growing overall balance of the Carolina's Conference. With the ending of the last decade perhaps ended the perennial dominance of Lenoir Rhyne in football. Perhaps the answer to the new decade is a new offensive formation. The players such as McCree and Bartles are gone and with them the confidence in the single wing. The single wing requires experienced personnel. It requires tough fast moving backs who can run and pass the football. The crashing linebackers this year did more than impair our winning season. They impaired our confidence in the single wing.

BASKETBALL

The 1971-72 Bears of L.R. have third coach in as many years, and this fact has the new Bear mentor, Coach Bob Hodges, a little bit worried. "Our boys have a big problem trying to adjust to a new coach and a new system after getting adjusted to a different coach and a different system last year."

And adjust they did to their new problem. They outran, outshot, and outrebounded their opponents 22 out of 28 times. A team that was ranked perhaps 4th in the conference at the beginning of the season put it together to dominate the league. A team that was 4-4 in December and then went 18-2 for the rest of the season. A team that defeated Belmont and knocked it from its national ranking. A team that stunned Gardner-Webb giving this powerhouse its only defeat of the season. How did they adjust?

The first adjustment was from a dominating coach to a college coach. The team no longer met a coach who demanded respect but inspired respect. A coach who played offensively and not defensively. A coach who generated teamwork. And teamwork they had.

Rick Hutchens, Mgr.; Nat Oliver, Trainer; Alan King, Mgr.

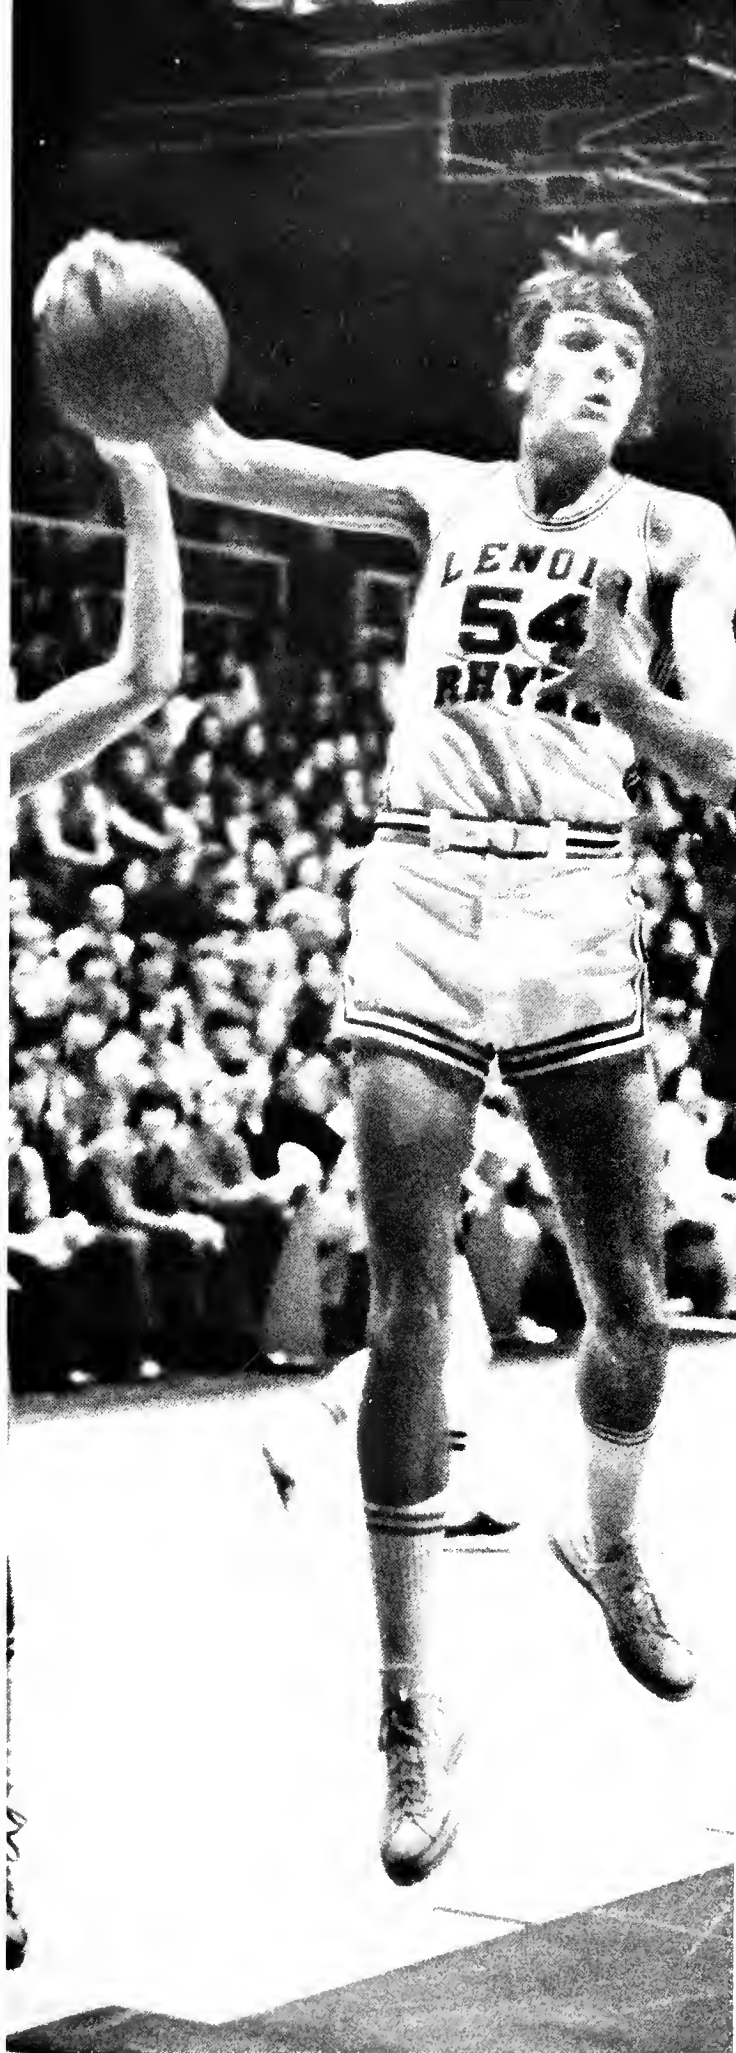

With a team gifted with guards galore, the fast break was effective. John Lentz with his ballhandling and outside shooting and Vernon Long with his jumping, shooting ability and natural charisma on the court fired the team from the start. Doug Hill was in constantly, proving that he was an effective leader of the team. The hustler, Eddie Crump, covered the court and kept the team moving.

But what really made the Bears outstanding was the hustle of the big man. To see one of the forwards or centers on a fast break was not a rarity. The offense was constantly moving and no one lagged a bit. Although sometimes at a height disadvantage, the hustle of the Bears outrebounded their opponents. Dan Williams jumped and passed from the center position all season, but what dismayed the defense was his skill at bombing from the outside. Buster Mann rebounded and shot his way into the starting lineup. Once there, he stuffed opponents time after time as they tried to overcome him. Rick Peak came on strong in the last half of the season and scored and rebounded plenty. When he was driving for a layup, not many opponents worked for a charging foul.

Bears of the future who saw fairly much action were Charlie Ellis, Rick Knight and Mike Zilly. Judging from what action they saw, it is obvious the Bears will be strong for years to come.

So what do you say to a team that goes from a mediocre team to a team that beats nationally ranked teams and ends with a 22-6 record? You sit and watch them score and simply say thanks.

GOLF

The conference champions return to the courses with an experienced potent team. With five of the top six men returning, Danny Hearn, Mark Stevens, Randy Gutshaw, Gordy Johnson, Jeff Isenhower, and the addition of excellent freshmen, the golf team should produce an outstanding season and should dominate the conference again.

Coach Ed Tallman

Coach Danny Williams

TENNIS

The tennis team returns after a successful season ending with a 6-3 record. With the top four, Chandy Greenholt, Jim Mauney, Robbie Michaelove, and Liles Suddreth, returning, the team should be more experienced and stronger. To add to the strength, Ron Denny (No. 5) and John Anderson (No. 6) have joined the team. The Bears are certain of a winning season.

*Leave of Absence

Farewell to you and the youth I have spent with you.

It was but yesterday we met in a dream.

You have sung to me in my aloneness, and I of your longings have built a tower in the sky.

But now our sleep has fled and our dream is over, and it is no longer dawn.

The noontide is upon us and our half waking has turned to fuller day, and we must part.

If in the twilight of memory we should meet once more, we shall speak again together and you shall sing to me a deeper song.

And if our hands should meet in another dream, we shall build another tower in the sky.

Kahlil Gibran
THE PROPHET
